

Opportunity to Join a Chamber Committee

The Chamber has a number of active and engaged committees that report to our Board of Directors. A key reason for the success of our board committees is the involvement of our Chamber members as volunteer committee members.

Each year there are a few openings on our committees for new members. We are recruiting now for members who will be available starting on January 1, 2022 for at least a two-year term.

To view the terms of reference for each committee and learn more about its work, please email communications@victoriachamber.ca.

All committees have the following requirements of their committee members:

- You've been a member of The Chamber for one year
- You understand the role of The Chamber
- You're able to commit to the time requirements of your respective committee
- You work effectively as a member of a group.

If you don't fit the parameters above but want to be involved, we do offer opportunities to volunteer at events and various Chamber activities throughout the year, just click here.

Here are our committees:

1. The Ambassador Committee is a dedicated team of members of The Chamber from various professional backgrounds who serve as liaisons to foster meaningful participation and connection-building as a way of increasing member engagement.

Time requirements: Attend committee meetings once a month from 8:00 – 9:00 a.m. on dates determined by the chair. Be available to make phone calls, meet with new members, attend Chamber events and conduct other outreach to members as required.

2. The Finance and Audit Committee ensures the financial responsibilities of The Chamber Board of Directors are attended to with Board oversight. Also ensures the financial integrity of The Chamber.

Time requirements: Attend bi-monthly meetings from 8:00 – 9:00 a.m. or lunch meetings on dates determined by the chair. Read financial information provided in advance.

3. The Emerge Committee is a group of people who are passionate about fostering authentic connections. The Emerge Committee runs bi-monthly networking events, as well as a mentorship program, where all Chamber members are welcome. Through The Chamber, this committee provides an opportunity to connect with likeminded individuals and to effect positive change in our region.
